ABOUT THE ROLE

We are looking for a highly motivated project worker to help deliver our exciting new projects as part of the Youth in Mind: Connect Service. The candidate will work closely with the Senior Practitioner/ Coordinator and wellbeing practitioner to deliver our Safety Nets and Thrive programmes to young people across Bradford District and Craven.

This role involves delivering engaging group work alongside providing one-to-one wellbeing support, taking lead from the wellbeing practitioner. The post holder will play a key role in supporting young people's emotional wellbeing, resilience, and personal development through structured interventions and a trauma-informed approach in a safe, supportive, and youth-centred environment that encourages participation and positive peer relationships.

They will be involved in planning and delivering inclusive and engaging group sessions for young people aged 5-17, facilitating group activities focused on emotional wellbeing, confidence-building, resilience, and personal development.

Groups will be typically delivered for 1-2 hours at a time on a weekly basis, with 3-5 groups a week happening. Groups will run in cohorts between 10-16 weeks.

This job will require regular evening work and occasional weekend work.

ABOUT YOUTH IN MIND: CONNECT

Youth in Mind: Connect (YiM: Connect) is a partnership service as part of Bradford and District Early Help Services. Yim: Connect is led by Bradford District and Craven Mind and includes Invictus Wellbeing, All Star, Family Action, Barnardos and Brathay Trust. Each partner has a distinct service offer within the service which is focused on supporting young people with their emotional health and wellbeing, predominantly in a group format.

The service aims to offer children, young people and families (0-25) with timely, effective and accessible interventions. The interventions will be trauma informed, focused on early intervention and working with a person centred approach. Yim: Connect partners will meet and work together regularly to ensure each young person and family is getting the most appropriate support.

ABOUT INVICTUS WELLBEING

Invictus Wellbeing is one of West Yorkshire's leading Children and Young Person's Mental Health Charities. We offer timely, effective and accessible mental health support whilst also promoting positive mental wellbeing in the communities we serve. We offer a range of services across Bradford, Calderdale and Kirklees and work with thousands of young people each year.

Our mission is to ensure that all children and young people have access to the support they want and need. We work exclusively with children and young people (5-25) and offer person centred support and care through counselling, support and evidence based interventions.

Our core values are collaboration, innovation, compassion and integrity and we expect all staff and volunteers to uphold these core values through their work with children, young people and families.

This is an exciting time to join our organisation as we enter our tenth year of existence and deliver new and innovative mental health services across Bradford and West Yorkshire.
